

BLUE HILLS COLLEGE

LEARNER PLEDGE

As a pupil at Blue Hills College, I have the right to quality education. I have the right to pursue my studies in an encouraging, secure and successful education environment.

To help achieve this, I accept the following responsibilities and agree:

1. To honour God and to respect the Christian values and traditions of the school;
2. To pursue my studies with dedication, diligence, honour and pride;
3. To attend school, and all classes during the school day;
4. To avoid aggressive behaviour;
5. To be responsible for caring for my own possessions at school;
6. To ensure that my personal grooming and appearance matches school standards;
7. To avoid bringing dangerous object, offensive material, harmful or illegal substances to school. In agreeing to this, I acknowledge the seriousness of drug related activities on or off the school premises;
8. To avoid any actions that disrupts lessons or in any way infringe on the teachers' right to teach and the right of my fellow pupils to learn;
9. To contribute to lessons and, when voicing my opinion, to do so honestly and openly, but politely;
10. To be on time for the start of school day and for lessons;
11. To be considerate in my actions to all pupils and staff;
12. To avoid engaging in any activity that may jeopardize the safety, security or academic progress of any person at school;
13. To respect the property of others;
14. To display good sportsmanship by encouraging team spirit and by being respectful toward opponents.
15. To respect people of different gender, colour or creed;
16. To behave in an exemplary manner when off the school property while identifiable as a Blue Hills College learner, or when representing the school.
17. To show courtesy to visitors to the school, including parents of my fellow students.
18. To respect, preserve and protect school property;
19. To avoid littering the school grounds;
20. To obey the School's Regulations;
21. To make sure that my cellphone is switched off during school hours.
